Dedication

Symbols and themes, clause and verbals, agreement and pronouns, budgets and recommendations — does this ever end? This thought must have crossed the mind of Miss Grace B. Kiernan, Chairperson of the English Department, many times in the past thirty nine years

Miss Kiernan has served the students of Norton in a variety of capacities over the years. As Yearbook advisor, she helped several classes to produce award winning publications. As drama advisor, she directed many successful plays. As senior class advisor to several classes, she guided countless students through the pitfalls of senior year. As chairperson of the English department, Miss Kiernan provided the leadership that has made the Norton English Department one of the most respected in the region and one whose curriculum has been published as a model for others to use.

Most of all, Miss Kiernan has served the students as an extraordinary teacher and loyal friend. Students left her classroom well prepared to succeed in college and careers. Recently, Miss Kiernan was responsible for the institution of an Advanced Placement program which will give many members of the Class of 1990 a head start in college. Miss Kiernan has always been willing to go that extra step to provide help for students both academically and personally.

In recognition of all of these accomplishments, we would like to dedicate Sojourn 90 to Miss Kiernan on behalf of all the students she has influenced but especially for her friendship with the class of 1990. We will always remember the special role she has played in our lives.

Custodial Staff

Thank you to the custodians and cafeteria workers for your help over the past four years. The custodians, Mr. Bill LaValley, Mr. Jimmy Sylvia, Mr. Ron Kingsbury, Mr. Manuel Teixeira, Mr. J.P. Sousa, Mr. Tom Withers, and Matron Mrs. Mary Shaw have opened our jammed lockers, set up for our events, and kept the building nice for us. The cafeteria workers, Mrs. Pauline Etter, Mrs. Sue Koppinger, Mrs. Diane Mitchell, Mrs. Marie Calhoun, and Mrs. Norma Kinney have baked special treats, produced food to keep us going and served us smiles as well as food.

As we bring our faculty section to a close, we would like to recognize some very special people for their service to the students of Norton. Although three of these people missed all or part of our senior year, they played important roles in our previous years at Norton High, and the fourth person played a very important part in the senior year of many members of the Class of 1990. We would like to thank these people for their service, dedication, and friendship over the years.

Acknowledgement and

Mr. James Sylvia joined the custodial staff on the Norton School System in 1965. During his 25 years of serving the students of Norton, Mr. Sylvia became well-known for his ready smile, friendly greetings, and willingness to help. We appreciated his friendship during our years at Norton High and regret that he was unable to be with us during our senior year.

Mr. Richard Pino taught in the Industrial Arts Department for 29 years. Although he was not here for our senior year, many of us learned important skills and enjoyed his friendship during our underclassman years. Mr. Pino, both as Chairman of the Industrial Arts Department and as a classroom teacher, gave many Norton students the vocational skills necessary to find employment and to pursue lifelong hobbies.

Appreciation

Mr. William MacMullen, fondly known as Mr. Mac to the students of Norton High, missed a great deal of our senior year due to an unfortunate accident in which he suffered a broken leg. This happened at a football game — a school event — where else would Mr. Mac be? His dedication to the Norton Music Program is unsurpassed. From middle school to high school, from chorus to band, from parades to assemblies, Mr. Mac has always been there to help his music students and to enhance all aspects of school life. We miss you Mr. Mac — please hurry back!

Mrs. Barbara Worthley provided the solution for the seemingly impossible problem of how to get along without Mr. MacMullen. With news of Mr. Mac's accident and extended absence came concern for the music program as well as concern for Mr. Mac. However, our fears were proven unfounded with the arrival of Mrs. Worthley. This dedicated and talented teacher and musician stepped into a very difficult situation and did an outstanding job for us. She continued the superb work of Mr. MacMullen while adding her own special touch to the music program. She helped many seniors through their final year in the music program and made many musical contributions to the school. Thank you Mrs. Worthley — we'll carry fond memories of you as we leave Norton High.

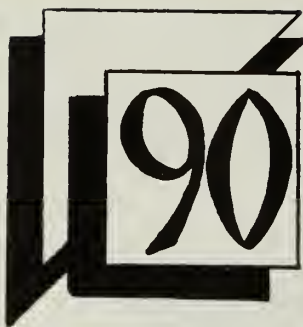

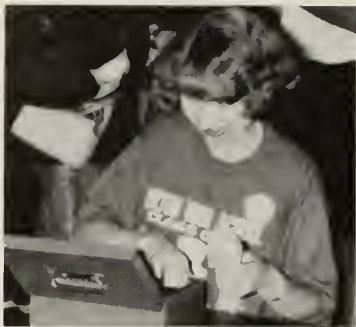

A Special Note of

Seniors

"You want me to sell what . . . ?"
 "I have to sell how many . . . ?"
 "I promise I'll have the money tomorrow . . ."

These are only a few of the many comments that bombarded the senior class advisors — Mr. and Mrs. Kieser, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Gagnon, and Mrs. McLaughlin — through the senior class fundraisers. We would like to thank them for their unrelenting encouragement and support. The custodial staff would also like to thank them for the endless hours of peeling gummy bears off the ceilings, windows, floors, etc. Together the advisors have organized many different events, like our senior class cookout, senior spirit week, and the 100 Day party. All helped make our last year our best.

¡Hola! Tag!

With the help of two new friends Alina López and Jens Seeliger, these words may sound familiar to you now. Alina and Jens, exchange students from Spain and Germany, have made our senior year extra special by being a part of our class. Both participated in the senior class activities, such as the balloon send-off and the hand-painting. They enjoyed some American hamburgers at our senior cook-out. Also, Jens and Alina were the guests of honor at our 100 Days Christmas Party. In addition to this, Jens was a member of our boys' soccer team. We hope they have enjoyed their year at Norton High. They have added a special touch to our class and will be missed when they return home.

Branching Apart

Our growth has been like that of a tree Begun with a single seed of hope
It grew through summer, into a brilliant array of color . . . to help us cope

As autumn arose, our leaves changed color and fell off . . . one by one It became much clearer, we needed each other in order to survive without the sun

As winter came, the air grew colder our needs were harder to fulfill.
But we grew together, shoulder to shoulder
And, with our friends, made it through

Spring came then, after the coldness
The buds began to bloom again
They grew quicker this time, more sure
Sure of ourselves, and of our friends

So here we are, hand in hand
Our bonds have made us strong
If, in our lives, we ever become cold
Our friendships will warm us along.

So as we sit, the class of '90
All dressed in our gowns and caps
We've watched our branches stretch apart
But still, they overlap

If, in our journeys, we feel unsure
We can return to our tree
It will be in full bloom, now and forever
For all the world to see.

M. Curran

Greatest Worry

being bored that I'll never drive being in goal and getting kicked in the nose like Erik did my car won't last till June being locked in the same room with Marco losing my car because I came in late Saturday nights it won't open, sergeant not fulfilling my greatest ambition to end up marrying my dream date food shortage cirrhosis of the liver settling for second-best right before the best comes along not finding a new hair style for the next day stalling my car the future
destruction of the environment going bald death not succeeding to wake up on June 2 and realize I've graduated from high school being chased down the school hallways by hotdogs and doughnuts that I won't be able to ever go on my dream date!
living with my parents forever clashing getting stranded on a deserted island with Mr. Rogers by the time I find the college I want to go to, it will be too late being in high school until I am 30 losing more weight what other people think of me leaving the light on waking up and not being tall dying before age 25 not being successful living without my mother my parents having faith in me dreaming what is real not graduating
Tommy Knockers
that I forget to fill my tanks before I go diving being yelled at by Miss Klemm not washing my face to have gray hair like Chuck how I look society finding me in the laundry basket living everything not being able to do what I want to do finishing my European History homework to not be successful myself graduation not graduating homework and money work that I'll be a failure and have to be a lifeguard for the rest of my life worrying
not succeeding to lose faith in someone I believed in making a bad impression that I will never get my license not succeeding in life that someday I will become a serious person

"Oh no! Not more pages!" was a common lament from the 1989-90 Sojourn Staff. Getting pages finished — and on time — was the bane of their existence. Whenever one page was finished, there were three more to do. The pages did finally end, and the staff, under co-editors Nicole Ingala and Lara Mackinder, and advisors Miss Jane Clancy and Mrs. Veronica Gagnon, published another great yearbook (we hope!).

Homecoming

Homecoming

This year's Homecoming Weekend was one of the most successful ever. After an exciting rally on Friday night, the football team provided a homecoming victory on Saturday. After the band's outstanding half time performance, Denise Lombardo was named Homecoming Queen. Later that night she and her court, Jessica Masone, Adrienne Powers, Joanne McIntyre, Lauren Maher, Cathy Kelleher, Laurie Weiser, Kristie Hupe, Nicole Vassolatti, Colleen LaConte, and Angela Ruggiano reigned over the Homecoming Semi-Formal which brought the weekend to an enchanting ending.

Semi-Formal

This year's Semi-Formal, the "Masked Ball," proved to be a magical night. The couples were transported to a 17th century ballroom, actually Wheaton's Chase Round decorated by the Art Honor Society. They could soon be found taking part in a night full of fun and excitement, well worth the price of admission. This enchanting event was generously sponsored by the Norton Honor Societies and Student Council.

Prom

"Hold On To The Night" and oh now we wished we could hold on to that night forever. Of course, we couldn't, but those who attended the prom on May 12 at the Somerset Lodge will hold on to the memories forever. King Peter Dawson, Queen Kerrie Calhoun, and their court reigned over an enchanted evening consisting of a delicious dinner and entertainment by deejay Jimmy Mac who provided a wide variety of both romantic and lively music for our enjoyment.

Spaghetti Supper

"I never thought preparing a meal could be so hard," was only one of many surprises of the annual Spaghetti Supper. What we thought would be another boring fundraiser turned out to be a show of senior class spirit and unity. Working together, we chopped vegetables, counted meatballs, slung spaghetti and washed unending stacks of dishes. Hard work can be lots of fun when it's for a good cause and this Class of '90 is certainly a good cause.

"The best of life is yet to be," — is the motto of SADD — Students Against Driving Drunk. SADD is a national organization designed to attempt to end drunk driving deaths and accidents. Under President Patti Griffin and advisor Mrs. Susan McLaughlin, members tried to raise awareness throughout the school through poster campaigns, red ribbon reminders, discussions, and meetings.

"We have finally found our talent in life — holding doors open." Members of Purple Key serve as traffic directors for the highways or hallways of N.H.S. They do an excellent job in controlling the traffic we experience daily. Although the job may be simple, it is essential in order to get students to their classes on time, and it also means that those selected for Purple Key can be late for their own classes!

"Todos a Una!", more familiar to most of us as "All for One," is the motto of the National Spanish Honor Society. The Society consists of students who are academically talented in using the Spanish language and appreciating the Spanish culture. Under the leadership of Advisor Mrs. Debra Sweeney, and this year with the added help of exchange student Alina Lopez, the Society worked with the other honor societies and student council in putting on the annual semi-formal and enhancing students' understanding of the Spanish culture.

This sagacious society is made up of the top-notch students. Under the direction of advisor Mrs. Dolores Robbins, they provide services such as a college fair and tutoring. These students can be seen on their never ending quest for funds while they sell candy, balloons, and Semi-Formal tickets in order to raise money for scholarships.

"We have to make how many masks for the Semi-Formal?!" Heather Mohan asked the society's director, Mrs. Veronica Gagnon, who led her artistic troupe in several successful ventures. Members of the society struck out with brushes in hand to decorate windows and tee-shirts. Money raised from such activities provides scholarships while the activities add a decorative touch to both the school and the community.

Student Government

"Want to represent your class at School Committee meetings?" Many offered to, but only one could be chosen from each class. This year the freshman representative was Michael DaCosta, the sophomore representative was Leah Myers, and Jenn Christensen was the junior representative. Scott Grieve (not pictured) was the senior representative and thus the one who carried the concerns of the students to the School Committee.

"Work on ways to improve the school???"

"I'd love to!!" (Who wouldn't?)

This was probably the sentiments of many who ran for positions on the School Improvement Council. Those elected were Stephanie Connors and Peter Doherty with Jenn Christensen as alternate. Steph and Peter met with elected representatives from the faculty and community and Mr. Wheeler to decide how designated state funds should be appropriated for the high school.

"Can we please make this last a whole period?" Although the Student Council often worried about timing, they did an excellent job of getting their work done. President Violet Bassett led the other members through a successful year raising money for charities and sponsoring events like the Semi-Formal and Homecoming. It is a good thing we voted for these people.

"Submit! Submit!!!!" was the call of co-editors Leah Bennett and Stephanie Connors. The staff and advisors Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Gagnon spent a great deal of time looking over literary pieces. This magazine took writing and artwork from students who contributed to a very interesting and successful first edition.

Articles to write, pages to type, deadlines to meet. At times these tasks seemed overwhelming to Advisor Mrs. Veronica Maher, Editor Sangita Chandra, and the members of the newspaper staff. However, these tasks and many more were all completed, and the result was a successful year for the staff of The Lance who published four attractive and informative editions.

"This van isn't going to make it, is it?" was a question often asked by this year's Debate team. Led by third year coach and first year van driver, Mrs. Mackinder, and powered by league standouts Jen Callum and Sangita Chandra, this year's team overcame tremendous odds in order to achieve another successful season. In just three years, the team has become a forensic force in the South Shore Debate League.

Peer Leadership

Helping Hands — Helping Others — Helping School and Community, or, in other words helping all. Peer Leadership is a service group led by Advisor Mrs. Susan McLaughlin. The group participates in such diverse activities as nursing home visits, eighth grade orientation, and panel discussions on such critical issues as drugs, abuse, and rape. Any Norton student who needs help knows that he can count on a helping hand and friendly support from members of Peer Leadership.

Sangita Chandra was not only a key member of Peer Leadership in Norton High, but also at the state level, as chairperson of the thirty-three member Governor's Peer Leadership Council.

French Club

"Parlez vous francais?" asked French Club advisor Mrs. Lorna Russell. "Oui, Oui" was the reply which accompanied by an outburst of laughter. Members of the French Club tried to become a little more French as they held activities like Mardi Gras and La Fete des Pais. (At least they are more French than French fries.) These activities were fun for all, and the club found that they had fostered another fun French year.

"This mousetrap has to do what?" groaned Erik Farrington, President on the 1989-1990 Science Olympiad Team. The Olympiad was not kidding when they created events which could only be solved by intricate contraptions. The team overcame these perplexities by outwitting their opponents. The team had their best year ever, finishing high in the standings of the Southeastern Massachusetts Science Olympiad League.

Posters, posters and more posters could be the motto of the Pep Club. Under advisor, Ms. Smith and President Renee Canto, this year's Pep Club was the peppiest yet! "Why can't we have awesome sweaters like the ones the Foxboro math team have?" asked math team president Stephanie Connors.

"Why can't we add numbers more accurately?" was the retort of Advisor Mrs. Vital.

As it turned out, the Norton math team did not need sweaters as they added, multiplied, and computed their way to another successful season. Paced by high scorer Chris Kollett, the team was a leader in a highly competitive league.

"What if I drop my baton? What if my flag is down while all the others are up?" These are the fears of the auxiliaries: the majorettes and color guard. These units practice many long hours to add a special touch to half time shows, pep rallies, and parades. Led by Advisor Linda Dunlap and Captains Paula Hunt and Lisa Wilson, the units placed well in competitions and earned special recognition at the Quincy Christmas Parade Competition.

"How will we ever get along without Mr. Mac, our director and friend?" This was the difficult question faced by band members in September. The injury of Mr. MacMullen at the beginning of the year was a serious loss to band members. However, spirit, unity, and Mrs. Barbara Worthley (especially Mrs. Worthley!!!) enabled the band to pull together and have a very successful year despite this difficulty.

Band Banquet

At this year's Band Banquet exceptional members of the Norton Lancer Marching Band were recognized. Although Mr. Mac's absence made this a difficult year in some ways, Mrs. Barbara Worthley led her musical membership to a successful year in many ways. Mr. Mac's attendance made the evening really special. The theme behind the banquet was Fun, Fun, Fun! and that is what everyone had. They at and danced their way into an evening that illustrated this motto.

Coach Sue Taggart was given an inexperienced team and the tough competition of a new league to start the season. With a great deal of work and practice, the Lancers became a competitive and respected team. The girls didn't win, but they saw some excellent goal tending by Sherry Bliss, and by the end of the season, goals were being scored. Lorraine Mohan was named to the All Star team. With Mohan and several other players returning, next season looks promising for the Lancers.

This was a building year for Coach Bob Rukstalis and his Norton Lancer runners. After suffering the loss of several seniors, the team's only experience was found in Captains Rob Peloquin and Jeremy Juutilainen. The lack of experience combined with the competition of a tough new league presented a sometimes insurmountable challenge, but these Lancers had several good outings and improved throughout the season. Hopes for next season are bright as Bill Mueller and Steve Kelleher will be returning to add strength to the team.

Excellent play allowed the Lancer volleyball team to go to the State Tourney for the first time in five years. Coach Kathy Beach didn't let a mid season slump slow her team down. Captains Denise Lombardo and Stephanie Connors took control on the court and with superb play from All Stars Tammi Kieser and Dana Rappaneau, the Lancers won their last three regular season games to earn a berth in the tourney with an impressive 13-7 record.

Coach Jan Wagner has seen constant improvement from her Norton girls' soccer team. The new league did not slow these girls down as they worked together to have their best season ever. Excellent play was seen from All Stars Jill Grogan and Violet Bassett. The future looks bright for this young team who should do very well as they continue to play together and improve constantly. Faces to look for next year will be Michelle Bymes on defense and Randy Carline on offense.

The Norton boys' soccer team began the season undaunted by the competition of the new league. The season began with a winning streak as these guys showed that they could really play. Led by All Star Captain Jay Fraise and Captain Matt Pompei, the offense continued to pester high ranked opponents and destroy their defenses while goalie Captain Erik Farrington led the stalwart Norton defense. Coach Branco was forced to deal with several injuries near the end of the season, but the Lancers still held their own. Although they will lack an experienced goalie, the team should do well next year with the return of such excellent players as Brett Reilly, Dom Eno, and Paul DeLuca.

The Lancer football team entered a South Shore League that seemed to be thinking only about crushing this new team. However, after a rough start, Coach Larry Larocque turned his players into a winning machine. With lightning quick All Star Hakim Walker scoring touchdowns and excellent play from All Star Dan Lenoci and Jamie Woodason, this Lancer squad finished the season with 6 wins, 1 loss, and the South Shore League Title showing the new league that the Norton Lancers are a football power to be reckoned with!

Coach Al Nuttall didn't worry about inexperience as he skippered his young Lancer team through a respectable season. Senior Captain Densie Lombardo and senior Co-captain Violet Bassett led their team on the court, starting and finishing the season with exciting victories. Coach Nuttall will be happy to see that several of this year's players, including freshmen Rachel Sayce and Randy Carine, will be returning.

Coach H. Kelley

Coach Howard Kelley saw a great deal of excitement throughout the season. After making an impressive start in the new league with two blowouts, the team played and won many down to the wire games. All Star Captain Vernon Wyatt and Captain Erik Farrington led their team through many fourth quarter comebacks. Senior Jayson Gauthier also played an important role as he calmly stepped back to launch, and score several 3 pointers in many games. This year saw more players coming off the bench so returning players such as junior Mike Anderson and sophomores Greg Taylor, Rick Starratt and Matt Kirrane will have plenty of experience to lead the Lancers to another winning season next year. The Lancers ended their season by going on to post season play — a tradition for Norton basketball teams.

Boys' Basketball

It looks like it's been a winning year beginning with all the great fall sports like field hockey, soccer and football. Then the winter season sweeps in with girls' and boys' basketball. With the warm sunny weather comes the spring sports season. Tennis rackets are in hand, track spikes scrape the freshly waxed floors and baseballs break car windows as the new season begins.

Entry into the South Shore League gave the Lancer golf team a long hiatus as golf changed from a fall to a spring sport. Coach Al Nuttall and returning players Rick Lehmkuhl and Steve White are looking forward to the competition of the new league. We are sure their outstanding performance in the Mayflower League, where All Star Steve White has been a top competitor in the past, will continue in the new league.

Softball

Coach Keith Gibson's softball team had a fantastic start but ran into trouble with some competition at the midway point. Despite this, the girls finished with a respectable record, provided a great deal of excitement for their loyal fans, and became an opponent to be reckoned with in the Mayflower League. All Star Captains Kerri Calhoun and Terri Tierney did an excellent job leading their team on the diamond. Tierney was also a Sun Chronicle All Star who broke quite a few league records during the season. The scouting report for next season is good as Tierney, All Star Jill Grogan and several other experienced players will be returning.

The 1989 Girls' Tennis Team came close to a 500 season with a respectable 7-8 record against some very tough competition. Playing against this competition helped the team improve as the players gained more and more experience. Captains Lauren Maher and Becky Bileau, along with Coach Terry Mullen, led their team through their last jaunt in the Mayflower League which they had dominated for several seasons. Maher and Bileau were also All Stars. Next season, these girls hope to do extremely well since only Becky Bileau will not be returning and the improvement shown by Jessica Masone and Beth Giordano at the end of the season should cover this loss. In doubles, Giordano and Eylana Goldman will be a much dreaded pair for their opponents.

Boys' Tennis

Norton boys' tennis team saw a sensational season as they went undefeated in the Mayflower League and ended with a 13-7 record. Coach Bob Maher and Captains Scott Dunlap and Peter Dawson led this team to its third consecutive league title. Brilliant play came from Sun Chronicle All Star Derek Butler as he dominated on the court for 14 season victories. In doubles play, the Jason Fraise/Matt Pompei combination recorded only 1 loss.

The 1989 Girls' Track team had another exciting year. Coach Paul Medeiros had several excellent athletes under his command. All Stars Lara Mackinder, Paula Hunt, and Violet Bassett gave their all throughout the season. Many events were so close and exciting that a winner could not be determined until the very last event.

Coach Bob Rukstalis' boys came through again — this time with a 1989 Mayflower League Co-Championship. This team was packed with competitive athletes. Captain Jon Dunlap was an All Star in the Triple Jump and 400 and won an MVP Award. Captain Mark Wilson won the JFK Award, George "Bumpy" Greene all-starred in the long jump and Vernon Wyatt all-starred in the high jump. Rob Peloquin also won an MVP Award. All of these honors added up to a 7-1 season, the aforementioned championship, and a lot of fun. With quite a few players returning, the next season should be another exciting one.

Division III State Champs — could we have accepted less? Coach Dave Mollica didn't think so as he and his team handed out defeat after defeat. All Star Captains Rob Pompei, Ed Reilly, and Rich "Tiger" King led the team to the best record in Norton history, 25 wins and no losses! Sixteen of these wins came from the blazing arm of Rob Pompei. These guys dominated so well that Andy Murphy, Mike Cruff, and Mike Prisco and all three captains were voted onto the All Star team. State Championships may become a habit with players such as Murphy, Cruff, Don Eno, Mike Caldwell, and Jim Mitchell all returning.

This year's cheerleaders saw a great deal of excitement as they cheered both the football and basketball teams on to league titles. The squad provided half time entertainment for the fans and spirited encouragement for the players. Coaches Barbara Reilly and Lauren Ricci and captains Jessica Masone and Betsy Rich led a very successful squad. New routines such as "Don't Go," "Girl You Know It's True" caused parents and fans to comment that these spirited and talented girls were one of the highlights of sports events.

A Friend

Thank You

The statement by Confucius of "Hold faithfulness and sincerity as first principles," could be used to describe Mrs. Eileen Kieser. Over the past four years we have been through bags of gummy bears, bear door "knobies," dinosaur towels, and flavored lollipops. We have had good times, difficult times, confused times, and stressful times. But through it all, both thick and thin we have had the guidance and support of a very special advisor, Mrs. Eileen Kieser. We would like to give a very special thanks to her for her "faithfulness and sincerity."

Good Luck!!
Lara + Nicole
